Fr. Felix Just, S.J.

Fr. Just, a member of the California Province of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits), is the Director of Biblical Education at the Loyola Institute for Spirituality in Orange, CA. After receiving his Ph.D. in New Testament Studies from Yale University, he taught at Loyola Marymount University (Los Angeles), the University of San Francisco, and Santa Clara University. He still regularly teaches courses through LMU Extension and the "Ecclesia" program of Mount St. Mary's College (Los Angeles). He gives many public lectures on a wide variety of biblical and liturgical topics, and often leads biblically-based days of prayer, parish missions, and weekend or week-long retreats. He maintains a large internationally recognized website of "Catholic Resources" (<http://catholic-resources.org>).

Dr. Andrew R. Davis

Dr. Andrew R. Davis is Assistant Professor of Hebrew Bible at the Seattle University School of Theology and Ministry. He holds a B.A. in Classics (Latin) from UNC-Chapel Hill, a Master of Theological Studies from the Weston Jesuit School of Theology, and a Ph.D. from the Johns Hopkins University. Dr. Davis's primary research interest is ancient Israelite religion, as it can be reconstructed from the Hebrew Bible and archaeology. His dissertation examined the temple complex at Tel Dan and its significance for understanding worship in ancient Israel. He lives in Seattle with his wife and his son.
